NELSON FAVORITE
FOR GO TONIGHTWill Probably Enter Ring
at 2 to 1 Over Herrera.

PROTECT AT ALL TIMES

Hit Wit One Arm Free in Breakaway—Interpretation Suits
Both.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 25.—Both fighters finished training yesterday afternoon. The punching bags are down, the skipping ropes are laid away with the dumbbells, and the gymnasium paraphernalia will rest for a season. The fighters are waiting for night to come.

The men will weigh in at the offices of the Pacific Athletic Club at 6 o'clock this evening. After the weighing in, Referee Eaton will meet the fighters and their managers in a private session open only to members of the press.

Expects Odds of 2 to 1.

From 10 to 7, the odds have gone to 2 to 1 in Nelson's favor, and it is predicted that the Dane will enter the ring a 2-to-1 favorite over the Mexican. At Greenwald's over $15,000 has been handled, and Ellis Cohen has placed $5,000. The mutual betting shows that a majority of the fight fans think the knockout blow will be landed during the last five rounds.

Billy Nolan, who has some very decided views of his own about the way the contest should be judged, will insist that there shall be no long wrangle in the ring before the fight. He says that all the questions will be settled before the men come into the ring, and the time-honored custom of calling the fighters to the center for instructions will be dispensed with in this fight.

Straight Rules.

Nolan will insist on a straight interpretation of the Marquise of Queensberry rules, which will govern the contest. Each man will hit as long as he has one arm free, and protect himself in the breakaway. Nolan also wants to have something to say about the referee breaking the men. He will insist that the men shall break in the order of the referee and without forcing him to go between them.

This interpretation of the rules suits either man to a dot.

Nelson likes to get in close and rip in killing jolts to the body. He is not a clinching fighter, preferring rather to fight himself out of the mix-up. Herrera will be pleased with the provision barring the clean break, for surely is the past master at the art of nailing an opponent coming out of a clinch, "that is how he whipped Sanny and Young Corbett."

Condition Will Tell.

This is a fight where condition and stamina will tell. Neither man is a clever boxer. Herrera is an awkward, cat-like cleverness, but he plays more attention to landing his own blows than avoiding those of the other man. Nelson has nothing but his aggressive bulldog style of knock-out on top of an opponent every minute of the fight. It is Nelson's boast that he never backed up in his life, and as for cleverness the biggest dub in the ring today can land on Nelson as he will.

If Herrera sticks to his word and goes in to knock out or to be knocked out, the fight will not last ten rounds. In a measure it is a grudge fight. Herrera has made several sarcastic allusions to Nelson as a pork and beans fighter, and the little Dane is not without his sturdy pride. Personal feeling will add something to each man's determination to win. Herrera has been knocked out twice in his life. Nelson has never taken the full count.

G. W. U. Will Attempt To Retrieve Defeat

Captain Bradley Has Made Number of Shifts
in Line-Up—Titus Will Pitch—Georgetown Busy Preparing for Saturday's Battle.

Nine Buff and Blue athletes will go to Georgetown Field tomorrow afternoon with the determination to make baseball history by defeating Georgetown for the first time since the establishment of athletic relations between the two universities.

Since their defeat last week by Georgetown the Hatchettes have been working with might and main to strengthen the weak points for tomorrow's game, and it is safe to say that the team will be many points stronger. Captain Bradley and Coach Weber have made two important changes on the infield, which have worked almost perfectly in this week's practice.

Orison at Short.

Orison at short and Morrissey at second have been all that could be desired. Both are fielding in fine form and are also batting well. Campbell is playing a great game at third, if his work in practice is to be taken as a criterion, and the George Washington rooters are expecting much of him in the coming contest. Weber has rounded into his usual form, and his big bat should be a factor in the game. The outfield is also working well. Price will be in center, Senior in left, and probably Stevenson or Burkett in right.

Where George Washington should shine tomorrow, however, will be in its battery work. Capt. Moditt Bradley, for years recognized as one of the best, if not the foremost amateur backstop in the District, is now catching his best, and throwing to bases with great accuracy. He will do the receiving.

HIGH CLASS TENNIS
AT BACHELORS' CLUB

The semi-finals in the tennis tournament for the championship of the Middle Atlantic States at the Bachelors' Tennis Club brought out some fast tennis yesterday, decidedly the best of the tournament so far.

Both the Hooker-Davidson and Glazebrook-Doyle matches went three sets and were hard fought. Hooker, after losing the first set 6-3, braced and took the last two 6-2, 6-3, and Conrad B. Doyle, the District champion, won from Dr. Glazebrook 6-3, 6-4, 6-1. Hooker and Conrad B. Doyle will meet in the final round today at 3:30. Hooker and Davidson played much the same style of game in the opening set of their match, laying back along the base line and cross courting the ball. This is Davidson's strongest game and he kept Hooker constantly on the move. In the second and third sets, however, Hooker went to the net and by his long reach and accuracy was able to place the ball in impossible spots. Hooker has a strong service and scored several aces thereby during the match. Davidson is remarkably accurate on his forehand ground strokes, but weaker on his back hand and, as far as possible, Hooker kept the ball on his left side.

Doyle had much difficulty taking his man in the first set, but after losing the first set 6-3, braced and took the last two 6-2, 6-3, and Conrad B. tack on Referee Phaherty. In a minute the ring was full of trouble, a swarm of struggling men engaged in a free for all until the police cleared the enclosure. The little boys went the full distance at a most terrific pace. O'Brien made a whirlwind finish, but it was not enough to offset the lead Goodwin had piled up in the first twelve rounds. The crowd was kept on edge throughout the bout.

Suddenly one of O'Brien's seconds seized a chair and made a furious attack on the ring.

J. A. REILLY AGAIN
SELECTED AS COACH

Old Georgetown Athlete Will Serve
Third Term as Instructor of Blue and Gray Squad.

The Georgetown football authorities have decided that Dr. Joseph A. Reilly, who was so successful at Georgetown last year, under the most adverse conditions, shall be given the task again this year of drilling the Blue and Gray gridiron aspirants.

There has been considerable discussion as to who would get the position of head coach at the local university next season. Thomas Kirby, who coached the Western High School team last year to championship honors, being the most likely candidate with Reilly, but the selection of the latter by Manager McCann and Captain Brock settles the question, and the former Georgetown athlete accepted immediately upon the offer being made, despite the fact that he is rumored to be being dickered for by the George Washington University management.

The coach, who will have served three seasons in this position, will start practice about the middle of September. The outlook for the institution across the creek is still a little hazy, as the new rules may affect the play materially. However, Georgetown will exert every effort to again land the District championship from George Washington, which it did last year, after the hardest struggle in the history of the two schools.

INSTITUTE GETS CLOSE
GAME FROM ARLINGTON

In a contest, the result of which was in doubt until the last session, St. Stephen's defeated the Arlingtons yesterday on the north end grounds by 5 to 4. The two belligerents fought, hooked, countered, and stabbed in a draw until the final round. One was down when the winning run was scored.
